

Neo-Schumpeterian Economics 09: An Agenda for the 21st Century

Call for Papers

In 2006, a first conference entitled “Neo-Schumpeterian Economics: An Agenda for the 21st Century” took place in Třešť, Czech Republic. Třešť is Joseph A. Schumpeter’s birthplace. The aim of this conference was the investigation of the significance of Neo-Schumpeterian Economics as a guideline for contemporary economic policy and its challenges.

The next conference entitled “Neo-Schumpeterian Economics 09: An Agenda for the 21st Century” will take place from June 10th to June 12th, 2009, in Třešť. It will jointly be organized by the J.A. Schumpeter Endowment Fund, by the Community of Třešť, and by some scholars of Schumpeterian Economics. The venues of the conference will be Třešť Castle Hotel and J.A. Schumpeter’s birth house. Třešť can easily be reached from Prague either by a conference shuttle or by bus.

The focus of this follow-up conference will again be the investigation of the significance of Neo-Schumpeterian Economics as a guideline for contemporary economic policy and its challenges. The deadline for paper submission is April 15th, 2009. If only an abstract was submitted, the full paper should be submitted by May 1st. You will be notified by May 11th, 2009, of acceptance of your paper. The deadline for registration is May 25th, 2009. Your paper will be entered into the conference program only if you registered within the deadline of registration.
